Euronet's Transact subsidiary signs three leading drugstore chains in Germany for e-top-up solutions

LEAWOOD, KANSAS and MUNICH, GERMANY—October 21, 2005— Euronet Worldwide's (Nasdaq: EEFT) subsidiary, Transact, today announced the introduction of electronic top-up (e-top-up) services at the retail stores of Rossmann, Müller and dm-drogeriemarkt, three of the largest drugstore chains in Germany. Transact's e-top-up services will be available at a combined total of 2,700 retail stores of the three drugstore companies.

Rossmann, Müller and dm-drogeriemarkt rank among the top five most successful drugstore retail chains in Germany. The prepaid service agreements with each of the three leading drugstore chains enables them to offer Transact's convenient e-top-up service to their customers at a number of their respective retail stores across Germany. Additionally, a majority of these retail stores will offer Transact's e-top-up service via electronic cash registers. This is the first time Rossmann, Müller and dm-drogeriemarkt are offering electronic prepaid mobile products at their stores.

"The decision of the drugstore chains – Rossmann, Müller and dm-drogeriemarkt, to partner with Transact to introduce our convenient and secure direct top-up solutions at their retail stores underlines the popularity of electronic prepaid products in the market. Besides adding greater value to their current product offerings, it enables the leading drugstore chains to meet the growing needs of customers," said Michael J. Brown, Euronet chairman and CEO. "With these direct agreements, Transact continues to strengthen its position as a leading e-top-up processor in Germany."

Müller is one of Transact's biggest clients using both its prepaid and payment services. Transact has completed roll out to all Rossman and Müller stores, while the roll out to dm-drogeriemarkt stores is nearly completed. These drugstore chains are considered as the most aggressive retailers in the German market.

Transact, the German market leader in processing electronic purchases of prepaid mobile airtime adds Rossmann, Müller and dm-drogeriemarkt to its extensive client list of major retailers and distributors, such as Lekkerland, DTV, Shell, DEA, Jet, AGIP, ESSO, Total Fina Elf, Kaiser Tenglemann and Karstadt. Transact also has agreements or top-up supply relationships with all of the large mobile service providers in Germany, including Vodafone, T-Mobile, O2, and E-Plus, as well as with a number of virtual mobile service providers, such as debitel and Mobilcom.
